

Remarks

The specification has been amended to correct idiomatic English usage and to add United States Patent and Trademark Office - recommended headings and subheadings. The claims have been rewritten to eliminate multiple dependent claims and to place the claims into conventional U.S. format. No new matter has been introduced by virtue of any of these amendments.

In the International Preliminary Examination, the claims were found to meet all PCT requirements for unity of invention, novelty, inventive step (non-obviousness), and utility.

Early favorable consideration is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Werner Bauer et al.
